

Mentor Health & Safety, Environmental and Employment Law & HR Training

Reduce business risk and keep your employees knowledgeable and safe with our wide range of training solutions

Aimed at all levels of employees, our training service lets you choose from a range of courses spanning Employment Law & HR, Health & Safety and Environmental Management. The courses are provided in various formats which allows you to choose what's best for your business and employees.

Your Needs

Mentor's Safety, Health and Environmental (SHE) and Employment Law & HR (EL&HR) training courses could help the future success of your business as well as meeting your regulatory responsibilities.

Our solution

Mentor's training is delivered in the following formats:

1. Public: Choose from an extended range of public face-to-face training courses across the UK, which anyone can attend
2. In-house: Choose to have one of our courses delivered face-to-face in your premises, or another location of your choice, or tell us what you need and we can design a course specifically for you

Benefits

- Our EL & HR training could help you and your staff get to grips with managing people and the complexities of employment law
- Our Health & Safety (H&S) training keeps you up-to-date with rules and regulations, which is important from a legal perspective and also for your staff's wellbeing
- Our Environmental training could help you save money, apply for tenders and help you and your staff

Is SHE and EL&HR training right for you?

You might consider SHE and EL&HR training if you:

Require training for your staff, which is accredited or approved by a recognised provider

Need to demonstrate that you are meeting 'training, competence and awareness' for the award of tenders or contracts

Have employees that are people managers and therefore require training and development

How it works

Speak to your Regional Development Manager to explore whether Mentor's training services can help you

One of our experts visits you to understand more about your business and explain various service options to meet your specific needs

You attend the training which is delivered by one of Mentor's inhouse trainers. Once you successfully complete the course, you're provided with a certificate of completion

NatWest
